Mental illness influences someone's choices on leading a healthy life. In times of uncertainty, our teams have become resilient in providing treatment and care to those served. We believed that just because a pandemic come into our lives, does not mean that the illness disappeared; the illnesses become more aggressive. We needed to be here to help each person manage the daily stress that they now faced.

A Letter From

BOARD OF DIRECTORS PRESIDENT, ED BLONDER

The SCSi Board of Directors has had an exciting year as emerge from the pandemic with renewed enthusiasm and optimism for the future of the agency. It won't be a complete return to the way the board conducted meetings before the pandemic but will incorporate the past ways with methods used during Covid. With the fine work of the IT department, we are able to have hybrid meetings which consist of meeting in-person along with Zoom. So if anyone is temporarily uncomfortable meeting at the agency in-person or for some other reason can't attend, Zoom is the perfect alternative. We have made it permanent due its success and the attractiveness to potential new board candidates. Our committees are starting to meet. The audit and Finance committee has been working closely with our CFO throughout the pandemic. A new building committee has been formed and will be working closely with Gino and Corey. On the agency's projects, our focus is always on how we can improve services to our clients while maintaining a safe and pleasant working environment for our staff.

A highlight for our board annually is to choose the winners of the Donna Millette-Fridge award. It is getting tougher and tougher to choose, and we have increased the award from one to three- direct client care, management, and ambassadorial. The sheer number of nominations by the staff creates quite a challenge for the board to decide the winners! We were able to meet in-person at the Norwich Inn and Spa during the winter for the awards ceremony honoring the winners and recognizing their sponsors.

In the board's opinion, New London continues to be a perfect location for us with its rich heritage and diverse culture. We continue to expand our relationships with the colleges , L&M Hospital , and the surrounding social agencies. We look forward to a long and beneficial relationship with New London and all the towns in our region as we remain one of the larger non-profit employers in the area

Tragedy did strike the agency in March with the passing, after a long illness, of our long-time chief program officer, Jason Hyatt. He was beloved by all at SCSi and is greatly missed by the board. We will miss his enthusiasm and ever-present smile. In order to honor Jason, we decided to name a building that will potentially house a new residential program for youth.

We look forward to a positive year with continued emergence from the pandemic, creating new programs and improving our infrastructure such as a new front entrance to our main building. Of course, we are always looking to expand our board.

Thank You!

Ed Blonder

Board of Directors President

And Our

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER, GINO DEMAIO

Dear friends of Sound Community Services, Inc.

Today marks an exciting milestone as we launch another annual report.

Our vision of becoming a premier behavioral health and wellness organization is one step closer. I'm incredibly grateful to the teams and employees that dedicated so much time and effort to bring our core values to life, not just on paper but in all action that we exhibit. We have a new reality, and I'm convinced that our strategic priorities of accountability and integration is just the right recipe to bring Sound Community Services, Inc. to the next level.

The past two years tested us in unimaginable ways, yet you continued throughout to deliver for our customers, our communities, our shareholders, and each other. Thanks to your unwavering care, resilience, and sense of purpose, we are a stronger performing agency than ever before. I couldn't be more thankful to every one of our employees, and I couldn't be prouder of the tremendous progress we've made together.

During my tenure as CEO, this is what has defined our story: being there for people when they've needed us the most, helping them build a more positive and sustainable future. Looking ahead to our next chapter, we will uphold this commitment to those we serve—and that includes all of you. We strive to create an inclusive, highly collaborative work culture where our people are empowered to grow and thrive. And we firmly believe our vision future will help us continue to do that.

Undoubtedly, the coming weeks and months will bring new learnings as we set, or reset, new routines in our daily lives and solidify new standards for how we engage and collaborate with one another. Just as it took time to adjust to working virtually two years ago, our future work approach will require similar patience. So, I encourage you to be kind and gracious to yourself, and empathetic and respectful toward the people we serve and each other as we all navigate this new era together.

We look forward to fully implementing our new strategic plan and key agency priorities of accountability and integration. By working together, we will be an even better, more-connected organization. We will continue to shine and make Sound Community Services, Inc. a source of pride for all of us.

Warmly,

Gino DeMaio

Chief Executive Officer.

Thank you to all our wonderful employees who help make Sound Community Services a truly wonderful place to work! Gino DeMaio, CEO of Sound Community Services, states "This kind of award is extremely meaningful, because it reflects the opinion and perception of those that work here, and that's very cool!"

JANUARY 2022: 2021 DONNA MILLETTE-FRIDGE MEMORIAL AWARD

Each year the Board of Directors of Sound Community Services accepts nominations from employees for the Donna Millette-Fridge Memorial Award, the most important award that Sound Community Services gives out. There's nothing more rewarding than being recognized by your peers, the ones that see what you do, and how you serve every day.

Donna Millette-Fridge exemplified excellence in the service of those who are challenged by mental illness. For those of you who did not know Donna, before her untimely death, she was a First Step employee for many years. Donna epitomized the values of social work! She always exhibited a very strong work ethic, strong leadership, and was an advocate for the First Step clients. She had dedicated her life to helping young adults who experienced behavioral health challenges, become productive members of the community. Each year the Board of Directors looks to find that special employee who has demonstrated the dedication and commitment that made Donna so special.

It's our pleasure to announce our 2021 Donna Millette-Fridge Memorial Award recipients. We hosted a small in-person Award Ceremony at The Spa at Norwich Inn for our award recipients.

Client Spotlights

A WRITER WITHIN SOUND

Please say “hello” to Matt. Matt, who has been with Sound Community Services for many years, utilizes a few of the programs we offer at Sound. Matt doesn’t let his mental health diagnosis get in the way of his goals he strives to accomplish in life. He is a writer, a playwright, screenwriter, and much more. Along with the help of community members in our community, Matt has accomplished a huge goal he set out for himself to achieve, he has released his first short film project titled “Clubhouse”. It aired on SEC-TV, was featured in The Day newspaper, and was shown at the 2022 HYG ART Screening Room in January. The Screening Room is a free Independent Film Festival located at the Hygienic Art on Bank Street in New London.

When you set your mind to something, anything is possible. We’re super proud of Matt and the achievements he is making. Congratulations Matt on your success, we’re going to need to get your autograph!

YOU’RE NEVER TOO OLD TO

Ask for Help

Please say “hello” to MaryAnn. As the writer of this spotlight, I had first met MaryAnn in 2019 at Skull Hill Biker Church through some mutual friends. I saw MaryAnn as someone who is vibrant, embraces life, a spitfire, feisty, quick witted, a tough cookie, faithful to God, and someone who loves to ride on the back of her husband’s motorcycle.

Over a year later, in the Fall of 2020, MaryAnn became a resident within our Bent Crandall Program (BCP), one of our residential programs at Sound Community Services. MaryAnn says, “my best thinking got me here.” What makes MaryAnn’s story so unique is that she’s a wife, a mother, a grandmother... She’s someone who exemplifies you’re never too old to ask for help.

For 10 years, MaryAnn fought for her recovery from a substance abuse disorder. Then in 2004, she relapsed, and her life turned upside down. Under the influence, she was in a horrific accident that almost took her life. Due to the accident, she was diagnosed with a traumatic brain injury (TBI). While recovering in the hospital, she had to relearn everything that once came so easy to her from learning how to talk, eat, to being able to walk. Playing simple solitaire on the computer, helped her relearn how to think and to remember.

When MaryAnn came to BCP, at first, she didn’t think she belonged there. With time, she gave the program a chance. “I love Bent Crandall, I’m so appreciative and my feelings towards Bent Crandall and that particular program has done a 360. They were just so fantastic in my life and I’m so grateful,” states MaryAnn.

During her times of relapse, her husband of 22 years has been her rock. “To have and to hold from this day forward, for better, for worse, for richer, for poorer, in sickness and in health...” She gets teary eyed when she speaks about her husband.

“My husband, he honored his vows and we’re still together,” states MaryAnn. When MaryAnn was granted passes at BCP to have “dates” with her husband, it was tough at first. MaryAnn had broken her husband’s trust in her. Her saying “she was trustworthy” wasn’t cutting it, she had to rebuild and earn her husband’s trust back. She remembers their 1st argument many years ago. “He and I agreed at that time that when we argue we won’t bring up the past, we will not call each other names, and that we stick to the subject at hand, and both of us have honored that since,” states MaryAnn.

One of MaryAnn’s coping skills is art. She is a fantastic artist with a creative mind. She draws, paints, writes in calligraphy, puts together decoupage art, and much more. Artwork takes her mind off things. She states, “I feel it gives me self-esteem. It’s really therapeutic. I give a lot of it away, but the biggest gift I receive in my art is watching that persons face when they open it up.”

After 18 months, MaryAnn is reunited with her husband at home. To stay in recovery though, MaryAnn will continue to use Sounds services, continue to attend AA (Alcohol Anonymous) meetings, and continue to attend Recovery Church. She states, “I’m going to stay teachable and do the right thing. I still ask for help. I have to, I can’t do this by myself. It’s God that makes me strong. It’s not I, it’s God working through me. What a journey it has been.”

We’re very proud of you, MaryAnn. You have the love, support, and tools you need to succeed!

Employee Spotlight

IN MEMORY OF JASON HYATT (5/13/1978 - 3/6/2022)

Dear Friends,

It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of Jason Hyatt. Jason passed away from complications related to his 15-month battle with brain cancer.

Jason was a beloved member of the Sound Community Service's family for the past 17 years, starting first as a direct care staff in a residential program, then Program Manager, Residential Director, and most recently, Chief Program Officer.

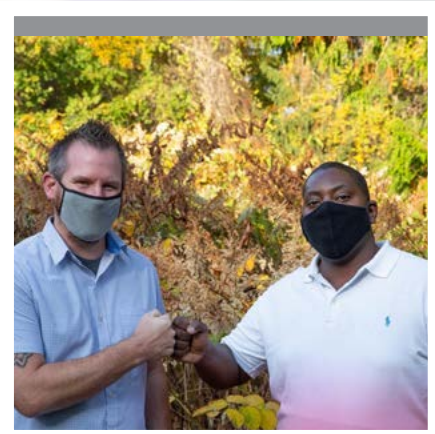

Jason had a profound impact on everyone he met; loved by the people he served, staff he provided mentorship to, and his co-workers. His passion for helping others was contagious, his compassion and desire to serve was inspiring.

We will miss him immensely, but we also find comfort knowing that he fulfilled his life's purpose here at Sound Community Services. We have all been touched by this amazing person, and his legacy and what he valued will continue to live at our agency.

Sincerely,

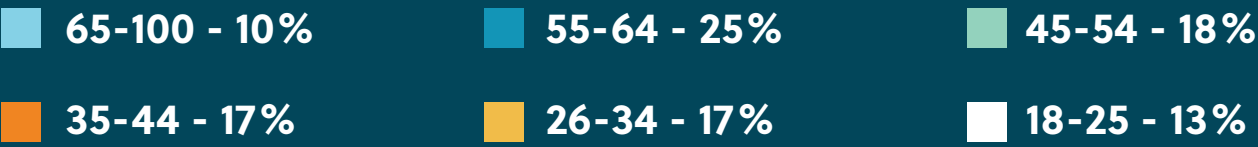

Gino DeMaio
